ART IN DESIGN

LEAH ALEXANDER | ATLANTA

COOL, CALM AND COLLECTED

From a bath dominated by blue designed by Leah Alexander for a wheelchair user in Atlanta (above) to a serene tiled bath in a 1920s Georgian by Christine Markatos (opposite), rooms can serve as small sanctuaries. To follow, a bright kitchen in Williamsburg, Brooklyn, by Keita Turner, a peaceful bath with a view in Southern California by Markatos, the new Lanserring showroom in SoHo, and a captivating dining room in Greenwich, Connecticut by Gilles Clement—all designed to comfort and impress.
